Australasian Committee for Power Engineering

It is therefore obvious that large scale PV integration into the Australian grid is necessary.