Confronting the Mystery of God: Political, Liberation, and Public Theologies

Gaspar Martinez

Confronting the Mystery of God - University of Queensland A highly insightful study of three major movements in Roman Catholic theology over the past thirty years. This fascinating work of theological scholarship offers a crucial component to the modern subject to be a central part of theological study.