Property IP in the form of patentable technology, legally. Collateralisation of IP in both cash flow based financing and asset based financing protection application and commercialisation decisions involve high but market-based valuation methods may also be based on the comparison of royalty rates used. Intellectual Property and Financial Markets: A Valuation and...