My First Book Of How Things Are Made: Crayons, Jeans, Peanut Butter, Guitars, And More

George Jones

Page 1 of 1
Manufactures Items National Library of New Zealand

are made: crayons, jeans, peanut butter, guitars, Discover how nature is transformed into more than sixty things we eat, drink, What Visitors Say About How People Make Things People use natural resources to live and to make things. PURPOSE. Students will be able to trace.. Jones, George. My First Book of How Things Are. Made: Crayons, Jeans, Peanut Butter, Guitars, and. More. New York: Scholastic, Inc., 1995.