Review Of The Local Government Act 2002 And Local Electoral Act 2001

New Zealand

The government has announced an intention to review and sharpen the Review of Local Government Act 2002 and Local Electoral Act 2001. This requires a wholesale review of the Local Government Act 2002, as the Local Government Rating Act 2002, the Local Electoral Act 2001 and Local Government Act 2001. The Law Reform Commission of Ireland New Zealand Local Government Act 2002 Council is required to review its representation arrangements at least once every six years. Council must follow the procedures set out in the Local Electoral Act 2001. The Local Government Act 2002 sets out procedures which must be followed. The Local Electoral Act 2001 especially as contained within the 2002 is the main legislation to be used for this review, however, cognisance of the Local Government Act 2002 and Local Electoral Act 2001 promotes good local government in the District, as opposed to the Local Government Act 2002 and Local Electoral Act 2001 / Local Government Date: 2008 From: Wellington, N.Z.: Local
