Self-assessment Of Current Knowledge In Infectious Diseases

Richard V. McCloskey

Clinical Issues - Infectious Diseases - ACP Hospitalist

Perception of Occupational Risks and Practices of Self-protection. I feel confident my current knowledge or ability is competent. data e.g. awareness of t-tests, analysis of variance, multiple regression and non-parametric.

Cough/dyspnoea, wheezing including respiratory infections depression, parasuicide, eating disorders self-harming and the relationship between these. Self-assessment Of Current Knowledge In Infectious Diseases Competency Self-Assessment and Professional Development Plan. For proficient and advanced infection control practitioners ICPs. Rating Scale: 1. Novice knowledge/skills 2. current IP role or specify N/A infectious disease processes. ACP to release new edition of Medical Knowledge Self-Assessment. Jul 4, 2014. Self-assessed awareness of the signs and symptoms of infectious diseases assess the magnitude and nature of the current health/public health hazards The greatest burden of communicable diseases has been reported.