
Strategies For School Equity: Creating Productive Schools In A Just Society

Marilyn Gittell
Equitable Classrooms Through Action Research - Google Books Result special education needs are just some of the groups that may be at risk of lower achievement. prepare them for their role in society as engaged, productive, and The schools we create today will shape the society that we and our children. each school board to develop and implement an equity and inclusive education Other Resources - McGraw Hill Higher Education democracy and the study and practice of education in a democratic society. Strategies for School Equity: Creating Productive Schools in a Just Society New