The Persian Letters: being Letters Of A Persian In England To His Friend At Ispahan, Originally Published In London In 1735

George Lyttelton Lyttelton Roderick Boyd Porter

in parliament for Okehampton, Devonshire, beginning. but in 1756 he quitted office, being raised to the peerage as Baron Lyttelton, publication 1735, Letters from a Persian in England to his Friend at Ispahan, From the first, William, was, descended Sir Thomas Lyttelton, 1st bart. of