To Speak In Pairs: Essays On The Ritual Languages Of Eastern Indonesia

James J. Fox

To speak in pairs: essays on the ritual languages of eastern Indonesia

To Speak in Pairs: Essays on the Ritual Languages of Eastern Indonesia

To Speak in Pairs represents an important advance in the study of oral literature in Eastern Indonesia. The volume thus presents a remarkable picture of life in eastern Indonesia, which is both a historical and cultural document. The book's editors, James J. Fox and Peter Burke, have selected essays that cover a wide range of topics, from the ritual languages of the Ata Tana 'Ai to the study of oral literature in the region. The essays explore the complex relationships between language, identity, and marginality in Indonesia, providing valuable insights into the region's cultural and linguistic diversity.

To Speak in Pairs: Essays on the Ritual Languages of Eastern Indonesia

This collection of essays is a major contribution to the study of oral literature in Eastern Indonesia. The volume thus presents a remarkable picture of life in eastern Indonesia, which is both a historical and cultural document. The book's editors, James J. Fox and Peter Burke, have selected essays that cover a wide range of topics, from the ritual languages of the Ata Tana 'Ai to the study of oral literature in the region. The essays explore the complex relationships between language, identity, and marginality in Indonesia, providing valuable insights into the region's cultural and linguistic diversity.