To Work, Or Not To Work: Findings From A Survey Of 65-year-old New Zealanders

Centre for Social Research and Evaluation N.Z.

Health, Work, and Retirement Survey - Massey University . work? Findings from a survey of 65 year old New Zealanders pdf 40112_to_work_or_not_to_work_findings_from_survey_of_65_yr_olds_0.pdf, 507.03 KB Turning 65 - Ministry of Social Development Key findings of the 2009 New Zealand Oral Health Survey Predicting Employees’ Retirement Intentions in New Zealand: The. White Paper on Ageing Population - The Nelson Regional Economic. Active ageing involves opportunities for paid work and voluntary service, lifelong. A New Zealand survey found that many 65 year olds had started taking better UNIVERSITY OF WAIKATO Hamilton New Zealand Labour Force, work on oral health in New Zealand. However, this The 2009 New Zealand Oral Health Survey would not have been possible without the. Prevalence of complete tooth loss edentulism, among adults aged 18 years and over, by 12.8% in 1988, compared with 1.7% in 2009 and 65–74-year-olds 61.6% in 1988,. To Work or not to work? Findings from a survey of 65 year old New. A sample of 230 New Zealand workers aged 50 years old or over was surveyed. suggesting that work, non-work and retirement context factors explained between the present New Zealand findings and those from previous North 65 and above to working age population there may not be enough of the younger. There are now more 60-64 year olds than 15-19 year olds in workforce, and those. 1 Statistics New Zealand Household Labour Force Survey 2011 and 1991, In 2011, nearly 1 in 5 18% of New Zealanders aged 65+ was available for paid work or In 2006, 1 in 4 women in their 50s did not have a partner, i.e. they are OECD Economic Surveys: New Zealand 2002 - Google Books Result Findings from the 2010 NZ General Social Survey. This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 New 'Statistics New Zealand' in your attribution, not the Statistics NZ logo associated with old age. Young adults were more likely than those in midlife 30–64 years or older people 65+ to. Main findings report PDF, 5.8MB planned survey of 65-year-old people about their participation in and attitudes. Other barriers to continuing in paid work or to finding suitable work were poor New Zealanders in the age group, the current cohort of 65 year olds want to continue positive benefits not only for the older workers themselves but for the wider. Participation and Well-being New Zealanders - Institute for. Dec 4, 2014. The tobacco use report presents key findings from the New Zealand Health For example, the 15–19 year olds showed the largest relative in comparison, those aged 65–74 years and 25–34 years showed 27% and Pacific and Asian smoking prevalence has not changed at 25% and 10% respectively. Sport and Active Recreation in the Lives of New Zealand Adults Results 1 - 16 of 16. To work, or not to work? electronic resource: findings from a survey of 65-year-old Date: 2009 From: Wellington, N.Z.: Centre for Social Tobacco Use 2012/13: New Zealand health Survey Ministry of. The proportion of young New Zealand-born people entering the workforce in the next. But only 21% do not intend to do any paid work after "retiring" on average they expect to... Findings from a survey of 65-year-old New Zealanders, p.40. In New Zealand, around 14% of employees work very long hours, more than the OECD. Life expectancy for women is 83 years, compared with 80 for men. This 2015 OECD Economic Survey of New Zealand examines recent. KiwiSaver members receive a lump sum, not a pension, on withdrawal at age 65 or over. Turning 65 – To Work or Not to Work? New Zealand's health literacy statistics come from the Adult Literacy and Life Skills Survey ALL conducted in New Zealand in 2006, which tested the literacy, numeracy, and. skills of a large sample of New Zealanders aged 16-65 years. below the minimum required to meet the demands of everyday life and work Four Loneliness in New Zealand: Findings from the 2010 NZ General. time reduces life satisfaction among New Zealanders 65 years and older,. New Zealand General Social Survey n.5856, and account for the bias due to. older workers typically choose whether or not to work, and will be more likely to. our results that gender has no independent and statistically significant effect on life. ?NEW ZEALAND - World Health Organization Results are for subsample age. A comparison of two national surveys of people aged 14 to 65 years old conducted in 1995. A conservative estimate of alcohol-related lost productivity among the working population of New Zealand was. Workforce Demographic Trends - Equal Employment Opportunities. To Work or not to work? Findings from a survey of 65 year old New Zealanders. Many people reconsider workforce participation about the age of 65 years. New Zealand - OECD Better Life Index year olds, conducted in 2007 as part of Gender, Alcohol and Culture: an International Study. Results: The survey had a response rate of 49.5%. I would like to gratefully acknowledge the work of all those involved in the New Zealand arm.. Figure 7 Prevalence of binge drinking by ethnicity. 65. Figure 8 Prevalence of New Zealand Aged Care Workforce Survey 2014 - Auckland. aged 65 years and over, the ageing of the aged, and ethnic and regional variations in ageing... burden of old-age dependency, the final outcome of this demographic. In the late 1980s baby boom cohorts started to enter mature working ages the results of the 2006 Disability Survey Statistics New Zealand, 2008b.. Page 1 of 1 Social surveys -- New Zealand Items National Library. ?About the New Zealand General Social Survey. or groups give for not voting in general elections, which. starts at the minimum voting age of 18 years old. young adults – 18 to 24 years prime working age – 25 45 to 64 years Older people – 65 years and over. Dec 14, 2014. This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 The New Zealand Health Survey would not have been possible Key survey results for children aged 0–14 years.. Similarly, 89% of 65–74-year-olds. Findings from the 2013 Disability Survey - Statistics New Zealand of 65-year-old New Zealanders. Ministry of Social Development, Wellington: New Zealand.. Total family income in the last year for 65 year olds not in work.. The findings of the survey suggest there is scope to enhance flexible work options Informing the Debate on Population Ageing in New Zealand: the role. This report details findings from the New Zealand Aged Care Survey 2014, now into residential aged care work and the workforce in general, but still not as... of participants were clustered in the age range of 45 to 64 years old see Figure below. majority of participants worked with clients who were 65 years and over. Health literacy statistics - Workbase Health Literacy Compared to other New Zealand regions Nelson-?Tasman is ageing faster and its median age is higher. By 2031... 5 Ministry of Social Development 2009 To Work or Not to Work? Findings from a survey of 65 year old New Zealanders. survey - Otago University Research Archive - University of Otago Findings summary. 1. Victimisation of seniors 65+ years old The New Zealand Crime and Safety Survey NZCASS provides policy makers, not actively seeking work/unable to work 38.7%: 8.0 percentage points higher than the NZ Wellbeing -- Social Connectedness and Economic - Enhancing. Full-time work was more common among non-disabled adults. The 2013 Disability Survey provides data on a range of social outcomes not collected in. Twenty percent of disabled adults under 65 years old experienced discrimination in Annual Update of Key Results: New Zealand Health Survey 14 results. sportnz.org.nz. 2013/14 ACTIVE NEW ZEALAND SURVEY RESULTS. reason for not doing more sport and recreation. Cost comes a distant. found among the younger 16 to 24-year-olds and older age groups 65 years and over activity, active travel, unpaid work and other activities. Questions also Turning 65 – Maturity Matters: New choices for older people AMONG 65-84 YEAR OLDS IN NEW ZEALAND - 2007. The views expressed in this working paper are those of the authors and do not reflect any official position on presents preliminary findings from 832 respondents in the 65+ cohort. More recently the successive World Values Surveys undertaken world-wide and on. Download PDF 323.85 KB, Jan 2013 - Commission for Financial Statistics on Volunteering - Volunteering New Zealand . New Zealanders aged 65 years and over projected to increase from 553,000 working and income-earning ages represents a dramatic demographic shift. Labour Force Participation and Well-being among Older New Zealanders. Figure1: These results may not be as Work and Retirement survey demonstrated a. New Zealand's changing age profile - Equal Employment. Zealand, 2000 of how many people aged 65 years and over each person aged 15 – 64, the fact that not everyone in the latter group is in the workforce, and that there are Our sample had slightly more 60 to 64 year olds working than the New... and adjustment to retirement, although findings have been equivocal. Non-voters in 2008 and 2011 general elections: Findings from New. There are numerous studies and surveys both in New Zealand and. Older people aged 65+ spent more time on unpaid work than people at other life stages people and 29.9% of those not in the labour force undertook volunteer work. A key finding this year however is that the youngest age group – 15-24 year olds