Smith on Kurusu in Shikoku district, and by John B. Cornell. Two Japanese villages: Matsunagi, a Japanese mountain community / by John B. Cornell Kurusu, a Japanese agricultural community by Robert J. Smith. In 1945-46, during the immediate post-war occupation of Japan, he John chose Matsunagi because it was an isolated mountain village. While the study can be classified as a community study, with more than two-thirds of the population engaged in agriculture, the emphasis was on the life and social organization of a Japanese mountain community.
